in 1562 he donated two silver-gilt tazza cups, engraved with his arms & name, to corporation of Norwich; An earlier similar cup, c.1575,
has no inscription [MON]

He returned to full-time service with Thomas Howard 4th Duke (1536-72), as Treasurer of the Household 1567-71, in succession to Sir Richard Pulteney [HS]

Thomas Culpepper of Loutham, husband of Mary BH (N 02) in his 1571 Will describes him as “…the right worshipful Mr. John Blennerhassett, esq., treasurer with the mighty prince, Duke of Norfolk…”

NOTE: Thomas Howard, 3rd Duke of Norfolk (1475-1544) was one of the most powerful figures of the reign of King Henry VIII;
who two of his nieces became wives of the King (Catherine Howard 1540 & Anne Boleyn 1553)
but both executed; The Duke himself escaped execution only because Henry VIII died before the warrant could be carried out

The archives at Arundel Castle, present home of the Duke of Norfolk, have the Will of Thomas, 2nd Duke, dated 31.8.1516 (ACA Ms.T1); a copy of the Will of Thomas Howard, 3rd Duke (ACA Ms.GD42); probate of the Will of Thomas Howard, 3rd Duke, 1554 (ACA Ms.T3); the original Will of Thomas Howard, 4th Duke, dated 31.5.1571 (ACA Ms.T4), and another copy of this last (ACA Ms.T5)

John Blennerhassett of Barsham was not involved in the plots of 1567-71, so was permitted to continue serving Thomas Howard, 4th Duke of Norfolk, after he was attainted (Jan.1571/2) and imprisoned in the Tower of London, until the Duke was beheaded (1572)

In 1569 John Blennerhassett was made a trustee of a large section of the Howard lands. The Duke of Norfolk in 1570 had received from the Crown a 21 year lease of land in St Leonard's Forest, Sussex, and after his attainted two years later a similar lease of 21yrs was made (in 1573) to John Blennerhassett & Win Dix of the Duke's household; John also had from the Duke, with William Dix and two others, an interest in “the site of the manor of Heckington” & other lands in Lincolnshire, Norfolk & Suffolk (11 Elizabeth of Lincoln, of Wickmer, Norfolk, was a witness to John Blennerhassett's 1573 Will; see HS).

An account book of the Duke's household 1571-74, by John Blennerhassett, gives a history of the efforts of the 4th Duke's sons to recoup the vast losses incurred by the Duke's family resulting from his attainder in January 1571/2 (ACA - Ms. A1075);

John Blennerhassett bequeathed most of his lands, including the manor of Barsham, to his son Thomas Blennerhassett; In his Will he also directs: “…I give and bequeath to my eldest some Thobenelrustett all my plate, snuff and utensiles of house and come and callt and upon condition that he be loving, natural and kinde to all his brothers and ysters in their necessyties…”

John BH said to have “lived and died respected”; a letter of 1564 from John BH to W. Paston is at [BL Add. Ms. 27959, f.4]; a letter of 22.2.1572 from John BH to Thomas Fairfax is in [CSP vol.LI p.438]; he and his mother Margaret Blennerhassett, nee John Carswell, were executors to her brother's inventory; in 1544;

Some sources confuse which of John Blennerhassett's marriages occurred first (1523/4, 15 Henry VIII) and second (c.1544/6, post 10.4.1544); as a result, some sources have Thomas Blennerhassett (who was a child of the 2nd marriage) shown in error as b.1524; & Elizabeth Throckmorton (John BH's 1st wife) shown in error as b.c.1522, which birth date could only make any sense if she had been his 2nd wife

m.1st. est. c.1535 Elizabeth Cornwallis; of the manor of Brome (Brome Hall). Suffolk; some sources date this m.1523/24 (15 Henry VIII) but that cannot be, does not fit with other known dates;

Some sources have Elizabeth Cornwallis b.1522 in Elizabeth Blennerhassett; b.c.1537 but whom MORTARTY has b.c.1522 in error; a post 1544; dau. of Sir John Cornwallis. Knt. of Brome, Suffolk (b.1492 d.1544. Will dated 10.4.1544 (35 Henry VIII), pr. 9.7.1544 London [PCC, register Pynyn] & Mary Sulyard (see NOTE to left);

Mary Sulyard; (b.1497) was g.dau of Sir John Sulyard of Wetherdon (d.1488), who was in the household of King Edward IV and tutor to the young King Edward V (b.1470 d.1483), one of the two murdered "princes in the tower"

Thomas Blennerhassett Sr resided at Loudham Hall c1591 to c1615, probably until his death in 1625, his son Samuel Blennerhassett Jr in 1627 sold Loudham Hall out of the family, to Sir Henry Heydon (d.1671, bar. nearby at Ufford) but Sir Henry did not take up residence until after the restoration

Mary ????, 2nd wife of Sir Henry Wood, was Maid of Honour to Queen ????, their dau. Mary Wood was at the age of 8 yrs betrothed to Christopher Tillyard (d.1670 & 1730), illegitimate son of King Charles II by his mistress Barbara Palmer (nee Villiers, b.1641 d.1709, Countess of Castlemaine, Baroness Nonuch, Countess of Southampton & Duchess of Cleveland) with a proviso that the marriage be delayed until Mary reached the age of 16; Sir Henry Wood also purchased the site of Convent of Campsey (N 17), at Campsey Ash (Campsea Ashe), about half a mile from Loudham Hall, from Frederick Scott, who had obtained the heirs of John Lane (NICHOLAS p.26); On Sir Henry's death a year later the Duchess of Cleveland took charge of Mary with the intention of raising Mary with her own children; Charles FitzRoy d.1730, Loudham being inherited by Charles Wood, g.nephew of Sir Henry Wood, who then made alterations to Loudham Hall.

The Wood estate, including Loudham & Campsea, passed to Robert Oneby of Barwell, Leicestershire, then to Sir William Chapman of Loudham (d.1785)
A deed of 1636 records how Samuel Blennerhassett Jr (b.c1602), his brother Edward Blennerhassett (b.1604 d.1641), Sir Henry Wood & Peter Pettitman (sc), jointly sold “(out of the Blennerhassett family) to Richard Nixon Sr (b.1589 d.24.11.1666 bur. Frenze), “the manor of Frenze (including Frenze Hall) and lands in Frenze, Ongar, and Theydon”. [NRO MS. 92/17, 1632;]

The significant word in one of the above deeds is “site”, which appears to indicate that by 1632 the house was either demolished or in a delapidated, ruined condition and unoccupied; the owner of Frenze Hall since 2002 is Talleyr Llewellyn [TL] who spent the subsequent 7 1/2 years restoring the Hall to its former glory; he suggests this may perhaps be an early example of a joint venture property development, the house being rebuilt c1632-36 with finance provided by Peter Pettitman and Sir Henry Wood; the manor, including the rebuilt Hall, being sold on in 1636 to Richard Nixon Sr, for the benefit of the four partners, while this is conjecture, it is quite possible

Talleyr reports a large quantity of reused timber in the house, including millstones from a number of different periods and some scarce good quality moulded timbers in hidden parts of the roof; however, the professional opinion is that the reused timbers are no earlier than the 17th century. “The only part that may be older is the north “crow-stepped” chimney stack which during the 19th century had an octagonal brick top, the brickwork and style look older and I was told by an architectural historian that it was not uncommon to keep the stack, if possible, after a fire or demolition because the bricks were so costly. …[TL]… when in recent years the house was offered for sale, it was advertised as “...understood to date from the 1630’...”

Benhall Church, Suffolk, Will dated 20.1.1611/12, pr.23.5.1614 (leaving son-in-law Samuel Blennerhassett a “silver cup of 4lbs”)

Samuel Blennerhassett Jr of Loutham Hall, Pettistree; b.c.1602 bapt.10.3.1602 Pettistree; d.c.1639/40 (dop); i.p.m. 1639/40 (15 Charles I), at [NA C142/596/34 & WARD7/93/43], Educ. Gray’s Inn, London (admitted 9.8.1632); inherited Frenze Hall, Diss, Norfolk from his father, Samuel Blennerhassett in 1625 and resided there until 1636

[SRO Ms.] showing Samuel Blennerhassett Jr acquiring lands near Frenze, Norfolk are: [Ms. MC 927 (1626)] Samuel BH acquired “half an acre of meadow in Thelveton & Osmondeston, in a place called Rothill”

[Ms. MC 929 (1627)] Samuel BH & Henry Gibbs acquired “…5 acres 1 rood of pasture in Overall field and Hisholl, now called Cowepasture, with 2 1/2 acres adjoining…”, [Ms. MC 929 (1627)] Samuel BH acquired “…a piece of meadow called Goodwyns Hedds & Popeswell, 1 1/2 acres, in Osmondeston & Thelveton; & a piece of meadow called Rothill, 5 acres…”;

[Ms. MC 921 (1631)] Samuel BH acquired “…three pieces of meadow in Longblackthorn Meadow, Diss, Norfolk…”

SALE OF LOUDHAM 1627: in 1627 Samuel Blennerhassett Jr sold Loutham Hall out of the family to Sir Henry Wood; in 1636 Samuel Blennerhassett Jr sold Frenze Hall out of the family to Richard Nixon; in SRO Ms. MC 921 (1632) is: “Samuel Blennerhassett to Peter Prettyman, to perform covenants in a bargain & sale of the site of the manor of Frenze, alias Frenze Hall”; in 1636 Samuel Blennerhassett Jr, Edward Blennerhassett (his brother), Sir Henry Wood & Peter Prettiman (sic), jointly sold out of the BH family, to Richard Nixon, “the manor of Frenze and lands in Frenze, Osmondeston, Diss and Thelveton” [NRCO MS 92/18, 536XL]; and in 1638 “admission of Richard Nixon on the surrender of Samuel Blennerhassett to several pieces of land in Osmondeston & Frenze”; also [NA Ms. WARD 7/93/43] m. Samuel BH, Suffolk, 1639/40 (15 Chas I); in [SRO Ms. MC 92/19] is an “Exemplification of a fine from Samuel & Edward BH and Henry Wood to Richard Nixon” 1640

[SRO Ms. MC 92/17 (1632)] is: “Samuel Blennerhassett to Peter Prettyman, to perform covenants in a bargain & sale of the site of the manor of Frenze, alias Frenze Hall”; in

John Blennerhassett b.post1552 (aged under 21 in 1573), perhaps b.c1559;

Edward Blennerhassett b.1559 (aged over 21 in 1573); his sister Frances Blennerhassett (N 09) was “my Lady of Arundell’s woman”, i.e. personal attendant to the Countess; he inherited lands at Ringsfield from father 1573; appointed co-executor of his father’s Will but refused to act as such

John Blennerhassett b.post1552 (aged under 21 in 1573), perhaps b.c1559. d.1608 [BIFR p.134]; appears to have been unm.

John Blennerhassett in 1587 gained the family portion of manor of Boylands (Boylands Hall) at Saco (adjacent to Frenze), following death of his cousin Mary BH Bacon (N 01), and soon after erected, jointly with John Cornwalls, a brass for Mary B. in Frenze church; he later sold the portion of Boylands to Sir Thomas Cornwalls, Knt.; in 1573 he inherited, jointly with his bros George BH & Richard BH, a lease of the manor of Pinsey, Essex, granted his father John BH by the Duke of Norfolk, in 1604 John BH attempted to “recover” the manor of Loutham in Pettistree from his nephew Samuel BH Sr, describing Samuel as “tenant” at Loutham; see Ms. “exemplification of a writ of precipe addressed to Samuel BH, exg., for the return of the manor of Loutham is John Blennerhassett & Edmund Colman” [HD 1538/29/73/31, 8.6.1604; & SRO Ms. HD 1538/29/73/30, 38 Eliz., 1594] but this appears not to have succeeded and he d.1608.

Samuel Blennerhassett Jr appears to have sold Loutham Hall out of the family in 1627, to Sir Henry Wood (d.1671, bur. nearby at Ulford); His sister Frances Blennerhassett in 1600 bequeathed him “…all that term of years unexpired in my lease of Blakende Endgate(?)…”, he was supervisor of the Will of his half-sister Elizabeth Throckmorton (nee Blennerhassett) in 1608

[Vos1561 p.361] & [SUCKLING/2] says he may have been “…of Lincoln’s Inn…”, but that appears to be another John Blennerhassett (N 23) who was at one time lived at Beccles, Suffolk (the nearest town to Barsham) became a lawyer & Judge in Ireland, and m. Ursula Duke (N 22); DAVY also confuses these two John Blennerhassetts

George Blennerhassett of Barsham; b.post 1552 (aged under 21 in 1573); d.1608 [BIFR p.134]; his half sister Elizabeth Throckmorton bequeathed him a ring in 1608; m. Frances Felthom of Hadsworth, Suffolk; (& Mulford?); dau. of Thomas Felthom, her 2nd m., she had m.1st 18.7.1596 Sir <????> Knt

he gained the manor of Frenze (Frenze Hall), Diss, Norfolk following the death of Mary Blennerhassett Bacon (N 01) in 1587; by 1599 Frenze was held by his nephew Samuel BH Sr (N 08), although George Blennerhassett was still living in 1608

Ralph (Ralf, Rafe) Blennerhassett of Barsham; bapt.27.3.1558 Barsham; d. an infant, bur. 13.3.1563/4 Barsham; [MORIARTY/1 p.278] takes this Ralph in [Vos1561] to be an error for his brother Richard, but he was wrong; Richard Blennerhassett was b.1566

Jeremy Blennerhassett (alias Hassett) was bur.6.11.1629 Pettistree (who is this?); there is another Jeremy BH at (N 31)

by her Will dated 8/9.1.1599 (42 Elizabeth I), pr.30.5.1600 [PCC] she leaves to her bro. NOTE: Frances' brother Edward Blennerhassett (N 08) was servant to Earl of Arundel until 1580; also her brother Richard Blennerhassett was servant to Lord <???>;

>>Anne (Agnes) Blennerhassett; bap. 9.5.1563 Barsham; unm. in 1573; fl.1608;

 BLGI p.134 shows Frances (or Anne?) incorrectly as one person, married to George Atkins

m. post 1573 George Atkins (or Atkinson); of Yelverton, Norfolk
(the 1599 Will of his sister-in-law sister Frances Blennerhassett names him Atkinson, but [VoN/1563 p.9] the 1608 Will of his sister-in-law Elizabeth Throckmorton (nee Blennerhassett) names him Atkins, as does [BIFR p.134]

[DOUBLELINE]

Thomazin is commemorated by an inscription brass on the North Chancel Wall, this at one time accompanied by two brass shields-of-arms, recorded by [BLOMEFIELD vol.1 p.144] but now missing: 1. Players (arms: argent, three bendons wavy, azure); 2. Players impaling "Duke and his quarterings"

[BLOMEFIELD vol.1 p.144] also records, further east on the same North Chancel Wall, the impression of another brass effigy and inscription that had by his time (c.1738-40) already been lost; fortunately this was earlier recorded by [ANSTIS E.26, f.232] whose notes were repeated by [BLOMEFIELD vol.1 p.144] as "the arms of Platres and Duke" with inscription: "Ora pro animabus Willi Platres et Thomazin uroris suae = = = Duke = = ="

Pray for the soul of William Platres and Thomasin his wife, daughter of [George] Duke [Eli]

This implies there were two "William & Thomasine Platres" monuments close together at Frenze, but is possible they were at one time parts of a single memorial

b.23.9.1556 Sotterley; d.6.1584 (date from his brass at Sotterley) but his i.p.m. of 20.10.1584 (26 Elizabeth I) stated he died '6th June the previous year' which is 6.6.1583;
b. in Sotterley church, under a large stone, arms of Players impaling eight quarterings of Askall "twice repeated" [SUCKLING 1846 vol.1 Sotterley] with an inscription brass

William Platres remarried three times (the names of his four wives recorded on his monumental brass):

m.2nd - to Elizabeth Tymerperly b.1644 (dau. of Thomas Tymerperly of Hinthistle Hall, Suffolk)

b. in Sotterley church under an inscription brass in the chancel floor; 20 years later in 1658 a magnificent alabaster monument by sculptor Edward Marshall was erected in his memory and that of his two wives and 22 children; this is said to be the best such monument in Suffolk

The Laythes, a.k.a. "Lathes Hall", "Hassetts House" or "Hassetts House";

3. William Blennerhassett

Radical Puritan

b.?? of Horsford Park, Norfolk, Norwich

- also of "The Laythes" (a.k.a."Hassett's Hall" or "Hassett's House")
- "Pockthorpe"; Norwich from 1551; also of Little Plumstead (aka "Plumstead"), Norfolk.

- N. 19

- "The Laythes", this Remainder monastic property until the dissolution of the monasteries under King Henry VIII in 1538, following which the Hall (manor house) of Monks Grange was leased by the Dean & Chapter of Norwich Cathedral to Hugh Haryson, yeoman, for 40 years; the lands of Monks Grange the Blennerhassetts purchased from his aunt c1540 in 1551 purchased the remaining 29 years of Hugh Haryson's lease on the house, then surrendering both leases and obtaining from the Dean & Chapter a new lease for 80 years

- As a Blennerhassett "home", the "Laythes" became known as "Hassett's Hall" & "Hassetts House", these names staying long after the Blennerhassett family had departed; the house was a "...a brick building with a courtyard before it and a flight of stone steps up to it. It was surrounded by a large walled garden..." but an illustration shows it to be half-timbered; "Hassett's Hall" was demolished in 1792 and a Cavalry Barracks built, the boundary matching exactly the land of Hassett's Hall and the barracks hospital occupying the site of the house.

- The barracks was itself demolished in 1963 and a housing estate built, among the new streets being "Hassett Close" and "Cavalry Road"; the site of the house is a raised area, landscaped and planted with trees; the remaining fragment is a part of the stone wall that once enclosed Hassett's Hall & yards, incorporated into the barrack wall when that was built, & still standing, it may be seen on Barrack Road (once Pockthorpe St) below the site of the house, close to where the wall turns among Gunney Rd.

- Pockthorpe is now a district of the City of Norwich, on the opposite bank of the River Wensum from the line of the old city wall and from "Hassett's Tower" (better known as "Cow Tower")

- William Blennerhassett the Puritan gained these lands from his aunt c1540 in 1551 purchased the remaining 29 years of Hugh Haryson's lease on the house, then surrendering both leases and obtaining from the Dean & Chapter a new lease for 80 years

Tales told by local people about Hassett's Hall (Gurney):

An old man told that, when he was young, Hassett's Hall he saw an apoprtion of a dead body roll across the room...

Soldiers working in the barracks hospital, built directly on the site of Hassett's Hall, reported being disturbed by "strange apparitions"

"there was a closet in the mansion that had never been opened, & no-one knew what was there, and the doors of the hospital two rooms had been plastered up - in attempting to open which, two people had been struck blind..." (Interestingly, when Barsham Hall was being restored in 1993 by owners Maurice & Janet Elliott, a large hidden room was also discovered there.)

Gurney also recorded a Hassett's Hall tale that has similarities to that from Barsham, Suffolk (N 05): "...a strange tale that old Hassett often told' in his court and four over Bishop Gate, and when his whip was cracked, flashes of fire came out which illuminated the whole city..."

HASSETT'S TOWER
The redbrick "Hassett's Tower", better known as 'Cow Tower', was rebuilt 1378-1390 as a part of the defences of Norwich, on the bank of the River Wensum, where it still stands; it is close to the site of "Hassett's Hall" but on the opposite side of the river, and may have taken its name from the Hassets' having at some time having as responsibility for it, or merely from the closeness to their house; it gained its more usual name of 'Cow Tower' because the land adjoining the river was cattle pasture called "Cowsholm"; others names are "The Great Tower", "Hassett's Tower" & "The Dungeon". The tower today is 52 feet high and 24 feet wide.

[GURNEY] & [BUNN] relate a ghostly legend connecting Hassett's Tower with & Barsham Hall, the home of Thomas Blennerhassett (N 05), a k.a. "Old Blunderhazard", near Beccles, just over the county border in Suffolk; The Barsham Hall buildings are about half a mile from main Beccles-Bungay road and are now reached by a gently sloping track along which, according to local legend, the ghost of "Old Blunderhazard" drives out every Christmas Eve just before midnight in a coach & six, to visit Hassett's Tower [a k.a. "Cow Tower"] at Norwich, and to return to Barsham before he may spook the morning air. The Barsham story makes the horses without heads and yet fire flashing out of their nostrils...";

This lane was not a part of the old coach road to Beccles, that is no longer in use but its route may still be identified.

Sir Edward BH was knighted 23.7.1603 by King James I (shortly before his coronation) in the Royal Gardens of the Palace of Whitehall, one of 500 dubbed knights on 23rd & 24th Aug.

In 1603 James raised funds by conferring knighthood on 700 landowners within three months, on payment of £50 each; Edward Blennerhassett responded to a summons, made 17.7.1603, for all persons and a person that had £40 in lands to come & receive the honour of knighthood; in this context [RYMER vol. viii p.540] & [SHAW] name him Edward "(Thomas Blennerhassett of Norfolk)"

NOTE: Knighted on same day & place as Sir Edmond Blennerhassett was a Thomas Blennerhassett described by [BLOMEFIELD or SULLICK vol. ? p. ?] as "Thomas BH who also went to Ireland"; this Sir Thomas, who it appears did not use his title, may perhaps be Capt. Thomas Blennerhassett (N 26) the soldier and poet, brother of this Sir Edward Blennerhassett

also a ring with a red gem set, engraved with Blennerhassett coat of arms, both bought by his eldest son Augustine at his death in 1663 he directed his lands etc in Co. Fermanagh and Co. Monaghan be sold to pay debts / provide for his children;

this was done by his eldest son Augustine

-- d.24.12.1641; captured 23.10.1641 at start of 1641 Irish rebellion, Francis was held at "Castle Hassett" (Crevenish Castle) the estate of his uncle Thomas Blennerhassett (N 26) with his wife, inherited Ballybane farm from his mother-in-law Ursula (Duke) Blennerhassett 1638

-- Following the initial grant to his father Sir Edward Blennerhassett of land in Barony of Lurg, Co. Fermanagh, Francis went to the property in advance of his father's arrival in Ireland, acting as his agent; He resided there c.1651, with him being 6 men, all well armed, two with wives, who were to settle there as leaseholders or freeholders; They had four mares, a horse & a dozen cattle & built an "English house", thatched, with chimney & oven; Francis settled at Rossebeg, Fermanagh, where he built a castle (Hassett's Fort, later named Rossebeg Castle, then Castle Caldwell), the village of Rossebeg and (partially) a church; He operated an ironworks works at Rossharbour near "Hassett's Fort", trees being cut for charcoal to feed the furnaces, another ironworks at Clonelly belonged to Leonard Blennerhassett (N 26)

-- In 1618 he succeeded to half his father's Co.Fermanagh lands, the other half together with the Manor going to his elder brother Ralph Blennerhassett; In 1625 Francis Blennerhassett was censured for conductious conduct towards the right reverend Idaines Spottiswoode, Lord Bishop of Clough; In 1630, as an undertaker, he obtained a re-grant or fresh patent of 1000 acres at Bannaghmore, Barony of Lurg, working with one man, William Armstrong, who had no arms (weapons) in 1631;

-- NOte: In 1664/5 the Rossbeg estate was sold by his first cousin Augustine Blennerhassett (N 19) to Sir James Caldwell, who renamed it Castle Rossebeg; the name was again changed in 1792, to Castle Caldwell

-- d.1641; said by his mother-in-law Anne Blennerhassett to have been murdered by the rebels, ...hung up on tenter hooks & his wife tortured until she told where their money was hidden, and then she and her children killed also...

William St Martin at Palace Gate, Norwich; 2nd marriage Alice Sibley (Syblay, Sybsay) of Boston, Lincolnshire; dau. of George Sibley perhaps(?) identical with Alice Hassett, gentlewoman; d.1631; bur.2.1.1631 St Paul's Church, Norwich [NFHS] m. Margaret Lee (dau. of John Lee of North Tuddenham, Norfolk) m. Margaret Lee, m. Margaret Lee m. Margaret Lee m. Margaret Lee, m. Margaret Lee m. Margaret Lee m. Margaret Lee, 2nd marriage William Blennerhassett's 3rd marriage Audrey Hare (a.k.a. Plumstead Pava) Norfolk d.1581 [NFHS] shows her in error as dau. of 2nd wife Alice Sibley (Sybsay) dau. & heir of William Hare of Briston, Norfolk m.13.5.1594 St James with Pockthorpe, Norwich; Edward (Edmund) Breese this was also of Horstead, Norfolk; Audrey Hare's fl.1598; d.24.8.1626 3rd marriage Audrey's 1st husband was William Blennerhassett's cousin, Thomas Hobart of Little Plumstead (a.k.a. Daniel Blennerhassett (N 27, N 32), William Blennerhassett's son by his 2nd marriage / Audrey's 2nd husband was Sir Edward Warner, also of Little Plumstead (Plumstead Pava), Norfolk, whom she m.c1562
NOTE: John BH's 1st marriage est. c 1560 to Jane (Margaret) Heigham on 9/11/1561.

John Blennerhassett (N 01) m.2nd 26.3.1473

Jane (Joan) Tyndall (Tindall, Tyndale) dau. of Sir Thomas Tyndall, Knt of Deene, Northants also Redenhall & Howckold, Norfolk

perhaps? y b.c.1445 at Howckold (now part of combined parish of Howckold cum Wilton) Norfolk

Jane d.6.10.1521, date from inscription on her monumental brass at Frenze [VoS/1561 p.357]; however [BLOMEFIELD vol.1 p.142], [COTMAN] and [MORANT] all have d.6.10.1520 in error, misreading the brass inscription.

[MAJORANT] & [DAVY p.361] have d 17.6.1521 in error

she is bur. in the church of St Andrew at Frenze, her tombstone on floor of nave having a monumental brass with effigy of her wearing a gown with a "kennel" headress, she "holding her beads" this brass at one time had three brass shields, two of which remain (fragments of a 3rd shield were at Frenze in 1521, since lost). These are:

1. Blennerhassett (with annull for difference) quartering Lovelham
2. Blennerhassett quartering Lovelham, impaling Tyndall quartering Fecklin (missing)
3. quartered, 1st & 4th Tyndall, 2nd Orton, 3rd Scales

KEMP section II, pp.21-22 makes Joan (Jane) Tyndall (who m. John Blennerhassett above as his 2nd wife) identical with a Jane, widow of Thomas Hobson, who also married a John Blennerhassett; he wrongly claiming that in her will she described as "Jane Blennerhassett, formerly Hobson"; this error of [KEMP] was copied by [VoS/1561 pt.2 p.357] which says Joan Tyndall BH was "almost certainly widow of --- Hobson" giving as ref. [BLOMEFIELD vol.2 p.181]. Will of Joan her sister John Blennerhassett

however, there was Jane, widow of Thomas Hobson, who m. 2nd to a John Blennerhassett, but she lived in London and d.c.1515, her Will requesting to be bur. next to 1st husband Thomas Hobson the church of St John of Jerusalem in London

This John Blennerhassett may perhaps? be Joan Tyndall's son John Blennerhassett (see RIGHT)

Jane Hobson Blennerhassett d. c.1515. Will dated 17.6.1513 (3 Henry VIII), Will pr.2.5.1515 (PCC), so she cannot identified with Jane Tyndall BH who d.6.10.1521, bur. in the church at Frenze, Norfolk

John Blennerhassett; unm., of Hampstead, Middlesex; also of Soutthall, Bedfordshire; see his Will -- also [BLOMEFIELD vol.1 p.141] [MORANT vol.2 p.153], [BIFR p.13]

Jane (Joan) Tyndall was "almost certainly widow of --- Hobson" but was not a widow of Thomas Hobson. The inscription reads "ANSE  G.6 f.39: SAF (Tindall, Tyndale) to [VoS/1561 p.357]; [VoN 1763-1613 p.308]

John Blennerhassett’s Will mentions Edward Hassett (relationship not stated, but probably his nephew Edward Blennerhassett, son of his half-brother Sir Thomas Blennerhassett, Knt); also Sir Henry Grey (Knt) who d.31.5.1532 (27 Henry 8) his sister Ellen and her husband Myles Hobart (N 32) jointly sold her share of the lands in Southall, Bedfordshire to Sir Henry Grey, Knt of Wrex Park, Bedfordshire

Jane Hobson Blennerhassett of London; by her Will (made 1513 when 2nd husband John BH was living) requested to bebur. next to her 1st husband Thomas Hobson, in the church of the Order of St John of Jerusalem (order dissolved 1540); Jane Hobson's 1st husband, Thomas Hobson, d.Feb/Mar 1511, Will dated 22.2.1511, pr.23.3.1511 Lambeth

John Blennerhassett & his wife Joan also in 1512 held a lease for lands in Lillestone manor, Middlesex (Ms. in Somerset Record Office, Taunton); John Blennerhassett & his wife Joan also in 1512 held a lease of Tyburn Fields, which in 1552 his executors disposed of to Justice Portman;

John Blennerhassett’s Will mentions Edward Hassett (relationship not stated, but probably his nephew Edward Blennerhassett, son of his half-brother Sir Thomas Blennerhassett, Knt); also Sir Henry Grey, Knt (N 32) who is his br-in-law although not described as such, also a "cousin" Christopher Saint Jermy (who is this?)

His Will reveals a concerned interest in repairs to church buildings and to road improvements, the Will being mentioned in this context in 'Hampstead Communications' [VCH - vol.9 "Middlesex" 1989, pp.3-8]

KEMP section 2 pp.21-22] also [VoS/1561 ed. of 1984, part 2 p.357] which copies [KEMP], intermixes data from the Will of this John Blennerhassett of Hampstead & Southall, pr.29.7.1532 (PCC, 16 Thower) with data from Will of his half-brother Sir Thomas Blennerhassett, Knt (N 01) pr.29.7.1532 (PCC, 17 Thower), this being the cause of great confusion.

The [PCC] copy Wills are adjacent in the same folio [PCC 16 & 17 Thower] so both have the same reference [NA PROB 11/24], this being the source of the writer's error.

Both Wills are stated by NA DocumentsOnline record index to have been proved on the same day, 29.7.1532 but not so, the PCC "Probate Act Book" [PAB, NA PROB 8/1], which should record of every PCC grant of probate, lists only John BH's probate on 27.7.1532; there is no entry for Sir Thomas BH, but his Will was proved between 29.7.1532 & 1.8.1532 both [KEMP] & [VoS/1561 ed. of 1984], error in point 1, that this John BH's Will mentions a wife Margaret, a son Edmund Blennerhassett (who also says "probably died young, father of Edmund Blennerhassett"

perhaps? m. Jane ??, widow of Thomas Hobson

Jane Hobson Blennerhassett of London, by her Will (made 1512 when 2nd husband John BH was living) requested to be bur. next to her 1st husband Thomas Hobson, in the church of the Order of St John of Jerusalem (order dissolved 1540); Jane Hobson's 1st husband, Thomas Hobson, d.Feb/Mar 1511, Will dated 22.2.1511, pr.23.3.1511 Lambeth (PCC)

burr. in the church of the Order of St John of Jerusalem in England (order dissolved 1540) at Clerkenwell, London; a wealthy man, he owned the manors of Marylebone, Westbourne, Charing, Grey(?), Tyburn & Lillstone in Middlesex, bequeathing them to his wife Jane for life; also property in Lincolnshire; they had children John, Richard & Elizabeth

1.7.1535 (27 Henry 8) his sister Ellen and her husband Myles Hobart (N 32) jointly sold her share of the lands in Southall, Bedfordshire to Sir Henry Grey, Knt of Wrex Park, Bedfordshire

From these connections to Tyburn & Lillestone, it appears possible that Jane, wife of John BH and widow of Thomas Hobson, is identical with Joan, wife of John Blennerhassett;

TYBURN & LILLESTONE in Middlesex:

John Blennerhassett & his wife Joan also in 1512 held a lease of Tyburn Fields, which in 1552 his executors disposed of to Justice Portman;

John Blennerhassett & his wife Joan also in 1512 held a lease for lands in Lillestone manor, Middlesex (Ms. in Somerset Record Office, Taunton);

From these connections to Tyburn & Lillestone, it appears possible that Jane, wife of John BH and widow of Thomas Hobson, is identical with Joan, wife of John Blennerhassett;

NOTE: ANOTHER THOMAS BHOS - BLENNERHASSETT CONNECTION:

In the church of St Andrew at Frenze, Norfolk is interred an unknown Thomas BHos on 9/11/1561, the date of the nave is a small but unusual and interesting monumental brass showing him in his winding sheet or shroud, with inscription "Pray for the soul of your charter of Thomas BHos to the tyntse"; this brass is of Norwich workmanship and from the style the date has been estimated as c.1520 (SAF)

Horning: William Blennerhasset the Puritan gained these farms from his aunt c1547 and in 1551 purchased the remaining 29 years of Hugh Haryson's lease on the house, then surrendering both leases and obtaining from the Dean & Chapter a new lease for 80 years.

He was a Fellow and first President of the Society of Antiquaries of London and a Fellow of the Royal Society;
THOMAS THE MARTYR HIGBED / HOBART

some sources suggest Thomas Hobart of Plumstead b.c.1523 (N 33) may be identical with Thomas Higbed / Hubbard/Hobart, alias "Thomas the Martyr", who was burned at the stake in Essex 17.3.1600/1601. this is not so:

Thomas Higbed "the martyr" was b.c.1537 and lived at Hornend-on-the-Hill, Essex; he may have m.30.7.1569 at Snoring Magna, Norfolk; to Helene Winsuffer/Winsopher (b.c.1546 Hingham, Norfolk: d.9.5.1603 Snoring Magna)

Edward/Edmund Hobart perhaps son of Thomas the Martyr?
Blunham manor, Bedfordshire, home of Anne Blennerhassett, was also home of Rev. Edward Blennerhassett, Rector of Blunham (N 19). Anne's nephew by her g.father's 1st marriage, and his son Samuel Blennerhassett (N 19).
