Robert Blennerhassett

b. est.1565 Flimby, Co.Cumberland, England; fl.1639; d.bef.1654;
of Flimby; afterwards of Ballycarty & Ballyseedy, adjacent townlands near Tralee in Co.Kerry, Ireland
son of Thomas Blennerhassett (p.C 7) of Flimby, Cumberland; Robert Blennerhassett came to Kerry from Cumberland c1590 (temp. Eliz. I) "...with his aged father Thomas...", as an undertaker or planter "...in the Plantation of the Province of Munster" his father having received 24.8.1590 (32 Elizabeth I) a grant from Sir Edward Denny of forfeited FitzGerald lands in Kerry, inc. the "...Castle, town and lands of Ballycarty (Ballycarthy, Ballycartie), Ballyseedy (Ballysheedy), Killy, BallyseedyMcnagh, Bally-McThomas, Ballencham (Ballyshane?) "...being in all 40 ploughlands & a half more or less..." to be held forever "...for one red rose to be rendered at the feast of St.John the Baptist… (29th August) and rent of six pounds sterling per annum…"; these lands were a small part of the vast Munster the vast Munster estates forfeited to the crown by FitzGerald, 15th Earl of Desmond
Thomas Blennerhassett returned home to Flimby, Cumberland, leaving his son Robert to settle in Co.Kerry;
Robert Blennerhassett is ancestor of all living bearers of the name, other branches now now extinct in male line
Robert Blennerhassett obtained further land grants at Killroan & Knockavane & Ballinguom 10.5.1611, Curragh McDonough 3.8.1623, Cooleneteade & Coolenaffren 4.11.1623 & Ballenlodiny 10.6.1635; He also gained advowson (right of presentation of the church living) of Ballyseedy 30.12.1622
Robert Blennerhassett was the first Provost of Tralee in 1611-13, the first MP for Tralee 1613-15 (jointly with Dethick Humphrey MP in 1613); MP for Tralee 1634-39, Sheriff 1622; In 1613 he surveyed for the walling of the town of Tralee, but wall not built of Ballycarty, Co.Kerry in 1641, and of "old" Ballyseedy Castle in 1659 (rebuilt as a house); he also held lands at Killorglin, Co.Kerry; in his Will he divided his lands between his 3 sons

In 1641 he lived in a house within the bawn (strong outer wall) of Ballycarty Castle; this is probably the house that became Ballycarty House, rebuilt in the 18th century by the Blennerhassetts, later home to the Nash family and burned c1920/21 during the civil war
John & William Blennerhassett appear in list of "Names of Persons in the Grants, under Acts of Settlement" c1661-5, but I don't know who William BH is on 30.9.1654 John BH acquired lands of Litter & Skahanagh and in 1661 the forfeited McElligott lands of E. & W. Ballymacelligott; Ballygrelah; & East & West Gortanlas (Gortatlea); The 1659 Census shows 44 Irish and 6 English on the Ballyseedy estate

(not Margaret Lynn)
b.c1595/1600, daughter of George Lynn (Lynne) of Southwick Hall, Northants. and his wife Isabella "Isabel" Forrest, dau. of Sir Myles Forrest of Morburn, Hunts;

His g.father Robert BH was c1620 granted town & lands of Ballyseedy, inc. Ballyseedy Castle, a Geraldine fort on south bank of the river Lee at the west end of Ballyseedy Wood);
Alongside this castle his father John Blennerhassett Sr. built/rebuilt a strong house, a 2nd "Ballyseedy Castle";
MP Tralee 1661 (his father was MP Co.Kerry at that time); High Sheriff Co.Kerry 1658 & 1663;
He was one of 3 men in Co.Kerry appointed by the Gov.-general of Ireland in 1673 to receive arms from "...persons of the Popish relegion in this Kingdom..." who had been commanded to hand them in; In 1666 a further Crown grant of 2787 acres in Co.Kerry and 2000 acres in Co.Cork was made to this John Blennerhassett
A single page Ms. by John Blennerhassett Jr dated 28.10.1654 was written to document his claim to recover the lands of the Ballyseedy estate, detailing how each came into the family;
This Ms. survives (in box 14 of deposit 823) among an important collection of Blennerhassett family and Ballyseedy estate papers in the Leighton Hall Collection (papers of the Browne family of Riverstown, Co.Cork, deposits 823 & 846) at Shropshire Archives, Shrewsbury, England; The Blennerhassett papers in this were originally at Elm Grove (now Ballyseedy Castle) and were inherited by Edward Francis Jemmett-Browne (B 1) from his grandmother Frances Blennerhassett of Elm Grove, who had married Rev. Jemmett Browne of Riverstown, Co.Cork;
The Blennerhassett documents are in deposit 823: box 14, box 18 (bundle 4), box 25 (bundle 19) also a bound Ms. vol. of notes by Edward F. Jemmett-Browne, dated 1910 is in 823 box 28

m.1654 (marriage settlement 1654) Elizabeth Denny of Tralee; b.25.2.1635; d.1696 at Tralee her Will dated 1689, pr.1696 [PCA] [WELPLY p.592], requests that she "...be buried in Tralee church [St.John's C.of I.] near her brother William Denny…";
She was daughter of Sir Edward Denny Kt (1605-1646; knighted 9.7.1626 in Ireland by Viscount Falkland) of Tralee Castle, the rebuilding of which he completed 1627;
It stood where Denny Street is now; The castle was ruined in 1641 & 1691; rebuilt 1802; demolished 1825; Only a few traces remain today, although some walls were uncovered in the 1990s
ROYAL DESCENT: Elizabeth Denny was 13th in descent from King Edward I of England ("Longshanks"), through the families of Plantagenet, de Bohun, Courtenay, Champernowne & Denny (also Lutterell & Edgecumbe); (see p.RD 5; and "Royal Lineage" by Joseph Foster, 1887)

BURNHAM (Lord Ventry)

1st Lord Ventry
of Burnham (previously named Ballingolin), Dingle, Co.Kerry (p.K 21);
b.25.10.1736; d.11.1.1824 at Burnham House; Edu. TCD (admitted 1754);
1st Baronet Ventry (I) cr.7.12.1797; 1st Baron Ventry (I) cr.31.7.1800, both of Ventry in Co.Kerry
Ventry was 9th of 16 Irish Baronies created on that day; He took his seat in the House of Lords
[GM Apr. 1824] reports "...His Lordship possessed considerable acquired property…";
This "acquired property" incuded the Blennerhassett estate of "Castle Conway", Killorglin, purchased on 27.10.1795 for £28,000 from Harman Blennerhassett (p.K 4) who broke the entail on his family estate by selling it; Harman Blennerhassett sold the property at about the time of his marriage to his niece Margaret Agnew, shortly before the couple moved to the USA to avoid the scandal at home
m.5.10.1755 (BP has m.1757 in error) Elizabeth Margaret Gun (Lady Ventry) of Ratoo, Lixnaw, Co.Kerry; b.14.9.1736

was used during the 1641 siege of Tralee & was probably a Geraldine fortress before 1584

HICKSON/ISC also suggested, from early maps, that the estate known as Ballyseedy may in the 17th Century have been included in a larger area then known as Ballycarty, implying that early ref'erences to Ballycarty Castle & Ballyseedy Castle could perhaps be the same place...
This is not so, as the original 1590 grant of of lands to Thomas B'hassett included property at both Ballycarty and Ballyseedy

The ruins of Ballycarty Castle may be seen today, by the river, not far from the ruins of Ballycarty House which was burnt c1920/1 during the troubles;
The ruins of Ballyseedy Castle are on the S. bank of River Lee at Puck's Well, at the W. end of Ballyseedy Wood, in c2006 developed as a woodland park

The Blennerhassetts settled first at Ballycarty, later at Ballyseedy, at each location building their own stone house on the bank of the River Lee, near the castle

Robert Blennerhassett appears to have built himself houses at Ballycarty and at Ballyseedy; In 1641 his son Capt. John "Jack" Blennerhassett (BL 2) lived in a house within the bawn (strong outer wall) of Ballycarty Castle; this being probably the what became the present Ballycarty House, burned 1920/21, whose ruins may also be seen;
The ruins at Ballyseedy, both the Geraldine fort and its adjacent Blennerhassett house, are referred to as "old" Ballyseedy Castle or, locally, as "Puck's House"

m. Elizabeth Conway; b.est.c1575
dau. of Capt. Jenkin (Jenkyn) Conway of Castle Conway, Killorglin, Co.Kerry & Mary Herbert; Jenkin Conway was one of the original planters in Co.Kerry with Sir Edward Denny, being granted the lordship of Killorglin, later Castle Conway, in 1614; he descended from Conway of Bodrhyddran, Pembrokeshire, Wales
Like Robert Blennerhassett, Jenkin Conway was an Undertaker or Planter in the "Plantation of the Province of Munster" and was granted Seigniory (Lordship) of Killorglin in 1614

ROYAL DESCENT
Elizabeth Conway was 16th in descent from King Henry I of England (p.RD 4) rampant argent within a bordure sable bezantee"

ROYAL DESCENT
Martha Lynn (Lynne) was 10th in descent from King Edward III of England, through the families of Plantagenet, le Despencer, Beauchamp, Nevill, Throckmorton, and Lynn (p.RD 6); see [FOSTER/2]

Capt. John "Black Jack" Blennerhassett (p.K 1) in his Blennerhassett genealogy "Black Jack's Book" c1736, has Martha Lynn's parents named William Lynne & Mary Forrest rather than George Lynne & Isabella Forrest

This ancestry was repeated in Charles Smith's "The Ancient and Present State of the County of Kerry" 1752 (p.53) and caused Martha Lynne's royal descent to be questioned by Kerry historian & genealogist Mary Agnes HICKSON (p.K 6);

In a series of letters to The Kerry Evening Post of Jan-Apr 1893, she argues with fellow historian & genealogist James Franklin Fuller (p.K 9) who took the opposing view; Joseph FOSTER and most other historians of the time agreed with J.F.Fuller and supported the Royal descent and Honora , dau. of 5th Baron Inchiquin)

ROYAL DESCENT
Ellen Stoughton is 12th in descent from King Edward III of England, through families of Plantagenet, Beaufort, St.Lawrence, Nugent, O'Brien, & Stoughton (also Neville & Browne) (p.RD 8)
