William (not Arthur) Blennerhassett >>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>> b.c1815 (aged 20 on 1.5.1835); d.bef.1889;
C.of I. Protestant; of Co.Kerry (or of Co.Cork ?)
Labourer until 1835, then police officer;
His personal R.I.C. record has him "...of Co.Cork", but
"Irish Constabulary Index 1816-82" p.B24, ref. 6057/10B, has him "...of Co.Kerry"; His wife was from Co.Cork
Enlisted in the "County Constabulary"
(later to become the R.I.C.) in 1835 as Constable (No.2091);
Served Co.Waterford 1835-66, resigned 1866
(one year before the R.I.C. was formed in 1867);
The rank of Constable prior to 1883 was the equivalent of Sergeant after 1883; Retired before 1889
he was recommended for the "County Constabulary" by Sir John Godfrey, Bart, (1763-1841) 2nd Baronet of Bushfield, Co.Kerry and son of Sir William Godfrey, 1st Bart. who m.1761 Agnes Blennerhassett of Elmgrove,

Arthur William Blennerhassett - RED HERRINGS:
1. In his 1934 memorandum of Blennerhassett family history, William Day Blennerhassett also wrote that: …the last I heard of Arthur was that he was aboard an American Cruiser bound for Cuba [or] the Philippine Islands during the American-Hispano War 1897…"; here he has been told about William Joseph Blennerhassett (b.1881) of San Francisco, California, who served in the U.S. Navy during the Spanish-American War of 1898 and was afterwards a stevidore with a U.S. Steamship Co. (p.U 5); not knowing there were other Blennerhassett merchant seaman, he assumed incorrectly this to be Arthur William Blennerhassett

2. It has been suggested Arthur William Blennerhassett died at New Orleans, Louisiana, USA after spending two years in hospital there; but in this tale AWB has been confused with yet another merchant seaman, John Wilson Blennerhassett of Liverpool (p.LL 3), a British merchant ship captain who died on 22.3.1859 at Mobile, Alabama, USA "…of inflamed lungs…"; Mobile is only 130 miles from New Orleans

Annie Blennerhassett; b.c1846 Co.Waterford; unm.
hankerchief folder, living with her sister Catherine McAllister at 65 Tower Street, East Belfast 1911

Arthur William Blennerhassett >>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>
b.c1854/6 nr Tralee(?), Co.Kerry;
of Waterford until c1866, his father being stationed there
Rumoured to have been disowned by his family for having "...married beneath his station in life…"
(unsure if this refers to his 1st or 2nd marriage)
a seaman by profession, but he sailed as a passenger on SS "Peruvian" ("Allen" & "State" Line), departing
13.5.1898 from Londonderry, Ireland to Boston,
Massachusetts, USA
He is said to have "...held a high position in the Freemasons and traveled on Masonic business, to China, USA & elsewhere";
his son William Thomas Blennerhassett was raised by his wife Jane and her sister Eva "Levi" McShane at their father's painting studio "…because his father was always away in China, USA etc…"
In 1896-98, following 2nd marriage, he was a publican, the licensee of "Cliftonville Bar" at 72 & 74 Louisa St., Belfast, NI (No.72 was the house, No.74 the bar)
William Day Blennerhassett of New Zealand (G 39)
lived for a short time at Belfast, in 1897;
in his 1934 memorandum of Blennerhassett family history
WDB describes meeting Arthur William Blennerhassett
at his "Cliftonville Bar" in 1897;
WTB told WDB how, as a boy, he had joined the Royal Navy at Waterford, Ireland, later deserting at Jamaica, West Indies "...some 30 years ago..." (i.e. c1867);
also how "…he then joined the American Navy and later on drifted into the Mercantile Marine…" following which he obtained "…a position as Customs Officer, which he gave up in order to travel with his wife for health reasons, and on her death he returned to Belfast…"
(refers to his 1st wife who d.bef.1896)
Arthur William Blennerhassett suffered from high blood pressure; it is said he died soon after returning from his travels, having suffered several strokes, while his son William Thomas Blennerhassett was still a child
(his death is not recorded at Belfast 1897-1901; a man of his name d.cMar.1898 at Limerick, when his son would have been aged 1 yr, but I cannot confirm this was him…)

m.2nd 18.1.1896 St.Anne's Church, Belfast, NI (C.of I.); Jane McShane (no issue)
b.c1872/3 Co.Antrim; d.c1940s "...aged well into her seventies…"; of 27 Peveril Street, Belfast 1896; probably(?) identical with the Mrs. Blennerhassett who was a confectioner at 118 Donegall Passage, Belfast 1899-1900;
of 62 Havana Street, Shankill, North Belfast 1911; bag maker 1911;
/
dau. of Thomas McShane, a Coach Builder
and also a painter, "...an artist of some note in his day..." who was "...well known in art circles in Dublin...";
her sister Eva "Levie" McShane (b.c1878 Co.Antrim) lived with Arthur & Jane at 72 Louisa Street 1896, she being witness at their marriage & present at the birth of their son;
Eva was still living with her sister Jane and her son at the 1911 census (described incorrectly as Jane's daughter)

William Thomas Blennerhassett >>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>>

raised by mother, his aunt Eva "Levie" McShane & his g.father Thomas McShane at Thomas' painting studio, living with them until he left to serve in the army in WWI 1911 census describes him as "apprentice to painting";
William Thomas Blennerhassett hardly remembered his father, who died while WTB was still a child;
following his father's death the Blennerhassett family sent a family member who was a police officer to fetch him, to be raised with them, but his mother would not let him go
He joined British Army in 1913 & served during WWI in Mesopotamia and in India; after WWI he joined the Indian Army
