Criticism of Rowland Blennerhassett Mahany, in a letter of 6.3.1906 from Charles W. Anderson to Booker T. Washington, is published in "The Booker T. Washington Papers" (Vol.8 page 539, March 1906; University of Illinois Press); e.g. "...Of course Mahany got all of his opinions from Milholland. Thus you see, that this scoundrel is going to and fro in the country, and exerting his poor abilities to the job of destroying certain coloured men..." and "...he is a bright fellow, but utterly devoid of party standing.
He is cordially hated by the leading Republicans of Buffalo, and is regarded as an Irish agitator..."
