perhaps(?) of Calhoun Co., Illinois 1840
/
m. <???> b. New Jersey

perhaps(?) identical with:-
Datus Kent who served in war of 1812
with:
Lieut. Ferguson's Detachment,
Ohio Militia and/or with:
Capt. John R. Reed's Co. of Infantry, 1st Regiment Ohio Militia, commanded by Lt.-Col. William Rayan (Rayen) an Elisha Kent also served in Capt. Reed's Company at that time

NOTES:
There was also a "Datas or Dotos Kent" serving in the 2nd (Anderson's) Regt., Michigan Militia, during War of 1812

In 1835 a Datus Kent resided at Norman township, Grundy Co., Illinois where he had a lumber business with David Bunch (the first settler at Norman, at Section 21, in the winter of 1834-5); He had a cabin on Section 15 at Norman township & built an hotel of logs across the river, known as "Castle Danger"; in 1837 he moved to Arkansas

perhaps(?) identical with Abigail Kent of Wayne, Muskingum Co., Ohio in 1840
her two children appear in the 1850 census with their father and with a "Mary Drake"aged 30 (i.e. b.c1820) at No.78 township, St.Charles Co., Missouri; Who was Mary Drake? Abigail may have been named Mary Abigail Drake, but her age was 24 years, not 30
/
J.A.Drake had 227 acres at St.Charles Co., Missouri 1836 and real estate of value $1000 in 1850
/
Abigail & her second husband Joseph Lewis Blennerhassett in 1858 had an acrimonious separation & divorced in 1859, following which she and her children lived on her farm at Dog Prairie, St.Charles Co., Missouri
In 1860 she is described as “laborer” (no doubt working her own land) residing with her children at St.Charles City, Missouri, having reverted to the name Drake; but by 1870 she was once again using Blennerhassett
/
1867-71 she was “keeping house” at Troy, Lincoln Co., Missouri, living with daughter Emily Tanner & family
1871-76 she was back on her farm at Dog Prairie, St.Charles Co., Missouri (held 2700 acres in 1870) with her daughter Emily Tanner & family 1880-1900 Abigail resided at Bedford, Lincoln Co., Missouri with her daughter Emily Tanner & g.children
/

/
Rev. Curtis Stephen Tanner wrote a short history of his family, later copied by his sister Beatrice A. Tanner
/
From his mother he inherited, with other Blennerhassett relics, a portrait miniature of Margaret Blennerhassett (mother of Joseph Lewis); This is now believed to be a much later poor quality copy of an original portrait miniature of Margaret Blennerhassett, painted c1819-1824 when Margaret was living at Montreal and now in the collection of the "Missouri Historical Society", St.Louis; Following his death this copy and the other relics were sold by his heirs to a Parkersburg historical organization, "The Centennial Chapter, daughters of American Pioneers" who operate a small museum in an old log house within Parkersburg City Park;
/
also sold to the Daughters for their museum, by one of Abigail's grand-daughters, were an original photograph of Abigail and a "really beautiful" photograph of Joseph Lewis Blennerhassett, with many other Blennerhassett relics
In Sept. 2004 the Daughters donated all Blennnerhassett relics from their collection to the Blennerhassett Island Historical State Park, for their Blennerhassett museum at Parkersburg
