Dr Dionysius Lardner was a married family friend and a lodge at her home during the time when Anna Maria was recently separated from her husband, she became his mistress c1819, he probably the father of her youngest son Dion Bourcicault Sr, who he supported financially c1840.

Dr Dionysius Lardner b.3-4.1793 Dublin (s. of William Lardner, educ. TCD 1812 (BA 1817, MA 1819). LL.B & LL.D. many prizes of Sandy Mount (a seaside suburb of Dublin)

he was an academic; scientist and engineer; encyclopedist; in Dublin lectured on science and mathematics, contributing articles to the Royal Irish Academy at Dublin.

1st Professor of Natural Philosophy & Astronomy at the University of London (now University College London or UCL) 1827-1831; interested in railways, he knew the Great Western railway engineer Isambard Kingdom Brunel.

Dr Dionysius Lardner m.19.12.1815 at St Paul (C.o.L.) Dublin; Cecilia Flood (separated 1820; divorced 1835) having issue:

1. Henry Lardner b.20.10.1816; bapt 21.11.16 St George Dublin 2. Cecilia Lardner b.21.8.1817; bapt 23.8.1817 St George (C.o.L.)

by his will he left his entire remaining estate to his son George Pensam Bourcicault, not mentioning his dau. Florence Bourcicault (but in his last years he resided with her, so she had probably received her share while he was living); George Darley Bourcicault in his will also did not mention his stepson Robert Edmund Coulson, this latter perhaps causing a rift in the family, when Robot's mother Eliza Howard/Coulston/Bourcicault had died in 1891 she left no Will, so Robert Coulson was effectively disinherited

Dion Boucicault by Spy in Vanity Fair 16.12.1882

Dion Boucicault Sr
Irish-Anglo-American playwright, theatre manager and actor, famed for his melodramas, including "The Colleen Bawn" in which he plays the character Dacie Blennerhasset; also translator and adaptor of foreign-language plays.

He made his professional stage debut at Cheltenham in 1838 using the stage name Lee Morton.

In the USA Dion Boucicault was instrumental, with Robert Montgomery Bird and George Henry Boker, in successfully promoting the passing of the 18.18.1856 U.S. Copyright law to protect dramatic works.

He has 3 portraits in the National Portrait Gallery, London; 1 portrait in NPG, Smithsonian Institution, Washington DC; his wife Agnes has 2 portraits in the NPG London.

m.1st 9.7.1845
St Mary Lambeth, London; Anne Guist of France, dau. of Etienne St Pierre, “a wealthy widow several years older than he”; she perhaps (?) a Quaker it was afterwards rumoured that she had died mysteriously while on a climbing holiday (perhaps honeymoon) in the Alps during the 1st year of their marriage, but this appears to be untrue; it is more probable she died in France between May 1847 and May 1848. Agnes Robertson Bouiccault believed Anne had sailed from France at Aix-la-Chapelle (the French name for Aachen)

m.2nd 1853 at New York(?)
Agnes Kelly Robertson (separated c.1872); she was b.25.12.1833 Edinburgh, Scotland (dau. of Thomas Robertson & Mary Muir of Edinburgh)

they lived together in the UK from 1852 (see above); Agnes went to New York USA in 1853, Dion following her 3 weeks later; they may have married at NY 1853 but marriage record not found Agnes was the 19 year old ward of Charles Kean and at that time the juvenile lead in Dion Bouiccault’s company; the affair angered Kean, causing a split between him and Dion; as a member of Dion’s theatre company Agnes was to become a famous and popular actress performing in Dion’s Irish plays Agnes was naturalised as US citizen 22.3.1873 at New York; of 38 Vereker Road, Fulham, London 1891; a boarder at 25 Royal Avenue, Chelsea, London 1901; of 40 Royal Ave., Chelsea 1911 (her son Aubrey also there 1909)

in 1863 Dion B. had an affair with the actress Mrs Emily Jordan Grace Oway: in 1882 Dion Bouiccault travelled to New York with the young actress Grace Oway (b.c1860/61), real name Emily Maynard Palmer “Gracie” Oldfield (BOU 07), [New York Dramatic Mirror, Jan-Dec.1882, p.5] reported: “Miss Grace Oway is the name of a young and handsome English actress that Dion Bouiccault brought over from England” in 1885 Dion Bouiccault left the USA for his Australian tour; Dion and Agnes separated 1885. Agnes sued for divorce 1886, granted 1888. Dion denied that he was ever legally married to Agnes, which may perhaps (?) be true as no marriage record has been found, but the divorce was granted anyway

Dion Bouiccault m.3rd 9.9.1885 Sydney, NSW, Australia; (Josephine) Louise Thorndyke (b.c1864 Australia); they married the age 65 years, she 21) while Dion Bouiccault Sr was on a theatrical tour of Australia 1885; this marriage of 1883 was declared bigamous (at his 1888 divorce from Agnes Robertson) so following that divorce Dion and Josephine Louise remarried, at New York in 1889
